

Assistant Management Accountant

Derby County Football Club are seeking a proactive and motivated Assistant Management Accountant to assist the Finance team in its day-to-day operations as well as its key added value and business partnering services to the wider football group.

The role offers real progression for the right candidate along with possible (long distance) study support toward an accounting qualification (ACCA/CIMA).

Operating within a fast-paced environment, the candidate would be expected to contribute their own ideas and suggestions for improvements in financial processes.

Excellent demonstrable customer service and communication skills are essential to ensure both internal and external customers receive the best service. The successful candidate must be confident working within a team but self-motivated to work independently.

Salary is competitive based on skills and experience. This role would be perfect for a high-flying school leaver or recent graduate!
