JOB PURPOSE

A great opportunity has arisen for a first team coach to work as part of the club's football department led by the head coach, based at Meadow Lane and the club's training ground nearby.

This exciting new role will enable a coach with expertise in restarts, set pieces and opposition analysis to work within a dynamic football staff at a progressive club and have a direct impact on first team performance.

We are looking for candidates who can demonstrate experience and success in coaching restarts and set pieces, with a good understanding of football analytics and set piece structure, design, and coaching. Experience of opposition analysis is also necessary. The role comes with a great deal of responsibility and would only suit individuals who are able to make their own decisions and work independently as well as part of a team.

MAIN DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- To be responsible for overseeing, planning and delivering coaching of all set pieces and restarts, including kick-offs, throw ins, corners, free kicks and goal kicks
- Supporting the Head Coach and Assistant Head Coach in individual player development plans and coaching
- Supporting pre and post-match opposition analysis
- Provide tactical and technical advice to the Head Coach and Assistant Head Coach on matchdays

COMPETENCY/EXPERIENCE

- Significant experience of coaching set pieces and restarts
- Working knowledge of detailed opposition analysis
- Familiarity with football analytics
- On field coaching experience

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE & PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Minimum UEFA B License
